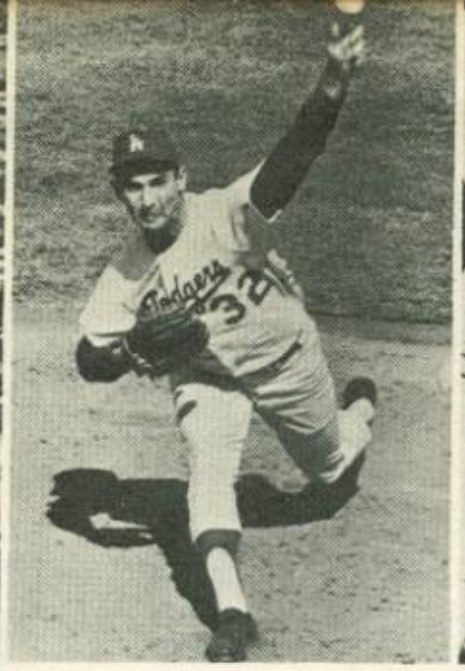
1964

MEMENTO

In Los Angeles, Baldwin Hill Reservoir cracked, then broke releasing a torrent which wrecked hundreds of evacuated homes, but produced few casualties.



Sandy Koufax won two as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Yankees four straight for the world championship. At year's end, Koufax was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Right: James Whittaker of Redmond, Washington, became the first American to reach the top of Mt. Everest.

National Event

Quints were born in Aberdeen, S. D., and in Venezuela in the same week. Here two of the American quints pose for pictures before going home.

Leaking gas exploded during the finale of an ice show in Indianapolis, killing and injuring many others.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took office immediately following President Kennedy's death and affirmed his intention of continuing the foreign and domestic policies of his predecessor.

Ransomed for $240,000, Frank Sinatra, Jr. returned home safely two days after being kidnaped and posed with his sister Tina, left, and his mother, Mrs. Nancy Sinatra.

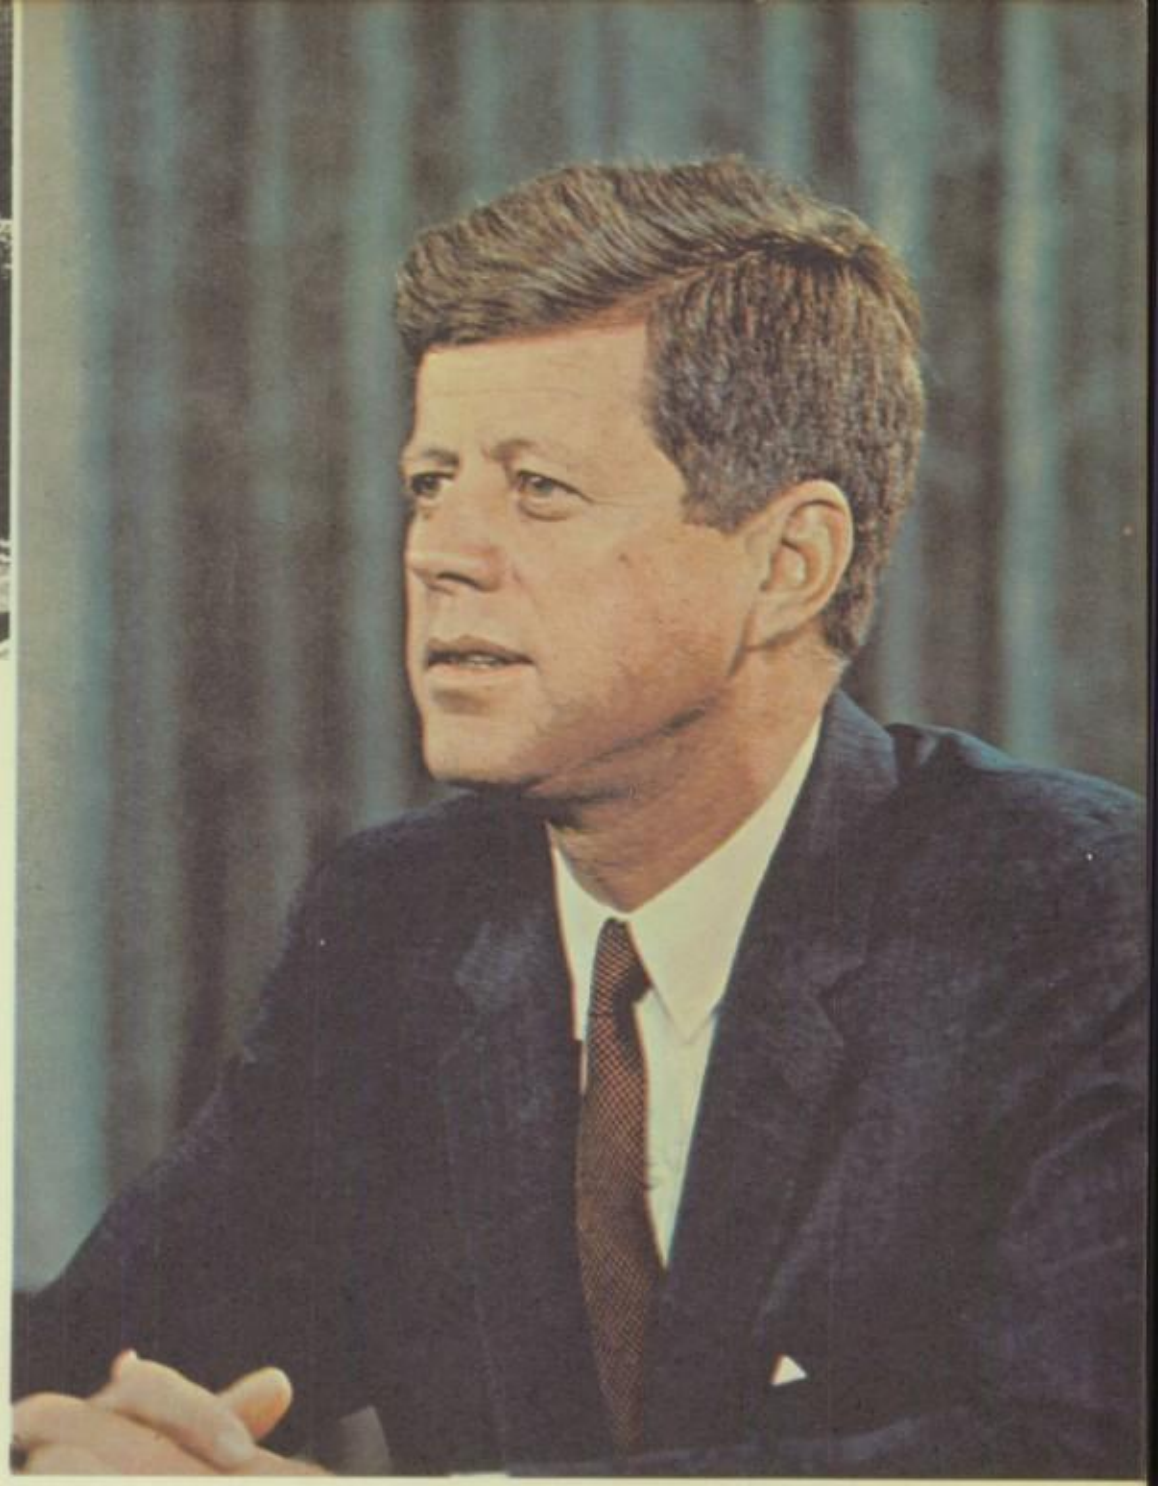
in Review—1963



With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lubke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

LATIN BANQUET

HARMON'S--Congratulations to the 1964 Class
305 West Main, McComb

In May Latin students, present and former, were rewarded for their hard work with a banquet in full Roman tradition. Everyone did as the Romans did by eating more delicious food than was advisable. The first and second year classes should be congratulated for their hard work to make the banquet a success.

A Good Place to Eat

The French classes enjoyed a gourmet special at the home of Miss Martha Millham on Saturday evening, February 29. All the dishes served were prepared from bona fide French recipes--starting with the well-liked French onion soup through a chocolate mousse, petits fours, and nougatines. A large "kiosque" was the center piece with a miniature one at each place together with a decorated menu depicting well-known places and events in French history.

MOTTO

The Only People Who Fail Are Those Who Never Try.

Outstanding academic honors were brought to our school by Karen. The Findlay Rotary Club launched a recognition program this year to honor the student from each county school with the highest scholastic record. Our sincere congratulations, Karen!

Our high school was most ably represented by Martha, who toured Europe in the summer of 1963 as a selected member of the School Band of America. We know it was a rewarding experience for her and an honor us. Martha received the award presented by the Findlay Optimist Club, which recognized her as the outstanding instrumental student of the year.

CONGRATULATIONS

Karen Dennis

Martha Millham

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1963-64, being of strong hearts and empty minds do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament. It has been ruled that no part of this can be used for incriminating purposes.

To the Juniors, we leave a huge Bermuda onion to assist them in showing their grief at our departing.
To the Sophomores, we leave the remains of our treasurer's book. Mrs. Rader supplies the rubberbands to hold it together.
To the Freshmen, we leave our numerous Halloween decorations; they must remember that teachers' homes have priority

I, Scott Aldrich, will my ability to get along with Mr. Heslet to Bill Caton.
I, Ron Andonian, will my nickname Cleo to anyone in high school who is worthy of it.
I, Madeline Arrington, will my shy disposition to Tammy Kleisch. Remember, Tammy, I said shy, not sly.
I, Doug Aukerman, will my crutches to John Collingwood, so he will have an excuse for sitting on the bench.
I, Nancy Beck, will my struggles with the French Lab to all future French students.
I, Greg Bishop, will my man-size beard to Don Clinger, so he can impress the girls.
I, Nancy Blair, will my ability to go shopping in any weather to Mr. Lucas. Remember, Mr. Lucas, every day except Sunday.
I, Barbara Bryan, will my driver's education experience to all future students, so they can learn to fill out insurance form
I, Mark Campbell, will my inexpensively acquired antenna to Mr. Hassan to replace the one he is currently using.
I, Dennis Challen, will my quietness to Terry Berger. The word is QUIET!
I, Virginia Collingwood, hereby will my ability to dance to Barbara Borgelt, so we can stop worrying about her throwing something out of place.
I, Connie Crego, hereby will my natural golden blond hair to Jane Edie. Just think, Jane, you can toss all those bottles away.
I, Gary Culp, will my car to Dick Shoemaker, provided he takes better care of it than he did when it was mine.
I, Karen Dennis, will my Detroit Tiger pennants to Mr. Lucas, provided he displays them during every Tiger-Indian game.
I, Anna Dishong, will my French speaking ability to Carol Cosner if she takes French next year. Remember, Carol, every little bit helps.
I, Joann Doty, will my ability to clear my throat to the junior boys.
I, Janet Ewing, hereby will my knack of getting in early at night to Barbara Borgelt, so she won't have trouble with "Alarm Clock Blues."
I, Kay Ewing, will my ability to stay off doorbells to Connie Spoors. You know, Connie, fathers like to get their sleep.
I, Arlene Gallagher, hereby will my diamond ring to Julie Payne, provided she doesn't get married before she graduates.
I, Joyce Gangle, hereby will my baby-sitting experience to Mr. Gilliland--patience is the secret.
I, Jill Glaser, hereby will my baby blue eyes to Gus Payne, so he can fascinate the girls.
I, Jon Haas, will one pair of blown-out glass packed mufflers to Mr. Martens and his 1936 Plymouth, so he, too, can attract attention on his way to and from school.
I, Pat Harshberger, will my position as first chair trombonist to Martha Myers, provided she doesn't let it interfere with romance any more than I did.
I, Judy Hector, will my good fortune of having a car to drive to school to Connie Wells, so she won't have to walk to school anymore.
I, Mary Hermon, will my cheerleading post to Diane Haddox, so she won't have to work at the popcorn stand.
I, Sam Inbody, will five pounds of bubble gum to Mrs. Warnock, so she can chew gum in study hall with the rest of us.
I, Pat Kempher, will my ability to say NO to Alan Myers and Pam Aller; remember, Pam, it is spelled NO.
I, Fred Kline, will my diploma to my sister Florence. Remember, Sis, grab it and run.
I, Linda Leader, will my numerous hand-me-downs to Kay Latta, so she will have the thrill of carrying on a family custom.
I, Dan Like, will my football ability, inherited from my brother Chuck, to my brother Gary, so he can play better next year.
I, Sue Long, hereby will my artistic ability to Kenny McVey, provided he draws all over his Dad's math papers.
I, Judith McDowell, hereby will my ability to lose weight while working in the cafeteria to Cheryl Siferd; remember, Cheryl, only one treat a day.
I, Sharon Miller, will my mutilated chemistry book to Susan Peneton, provided she patches the burnt pages.
I, Steve Miller, will my nickname "Lover Boy" to Stephen Anderson.
I, Martha Millham, will my front row seat in Government class to Nancy Ingold, so that she can get along with Mr. Bixel as well as she did with Mr. Lucas.
I, Sue Morse, will the patent on my man trap to Jane Edie, who seems to be having trouble.
I, Dennis Myers, will forty pounds of ugly fat to Mrs. Bayer, provided that she takes care of it as well as I did.
I, Anna Newell, hereby will my ability to tape Mr. Bixel's reviews without his knowing it to the Junior Class, knowing that they will need it.
I, Fred Nigh, will my ability to keep my hair combed back out of my eyes to Alan McCartney.
I, Rose Ellen Orwick, will my height to Jim Lambert, so he will know how it feels to look up to someone.
I, Tom Pitney, will my photographic ability to Steve Moorhead, so that the annual will have unusually excellent quality pictures.
I, Terry Rader, will my exuberant personality to the Freshman Class, knowing that they don't need it.
I, Lois Ann St. John, will my ability to play first chair clarinet to Donnie Clinger as long as he promises to keep his lips in shape.
I, John Sherick, hereby will my gray hair to Mr. Bixel, since he could use any color he can get.
I, Mack Short, hereby will all my super-abundance of poundage to everyone's smiling companion, Morris Dwight Fenstermaker.
I, Madelyn Shrewsbury, hereby will my favorite band, "Roni and the Shadows," to Mr. Gilliland. He can hire them any any time at half price.
I, Eileen Smith, will my other nylon to Mr. Hassan to ruin. Then that will make a pair.
I, Donelda Sterling, hereby will my girlish figure to Sharon Whitticar. Remember, Sharon, just two Metrecal wafers.
I, Paul Sudlow, will my basketball suit to David Rader if he grows into it.
I, Bill Tate, will my ability to run a projector to Jim Buttermore; remember, Jim, keep your fingers out of the projector while it's running.
I, Linn Tate, will my many seventh period study hall seats to Mrs. Pulling, just in case she needs some extra seats for an overflow.
I, Vicki Todd, hereby will my baton to Diane Detamore, knowing that she will get good use out of it.
I, Phyllis Van Horn, hereby will my big brown eyes to Kay Latta, provided she exercises them daily.
I, Eugene Weaver, hereby will my ability to talk in class to Mr. Lucas, provided he doesn't bawl himself out.
I, Richard Weaver, will my Physics Laboratory book to Dick Shoemaker, hoping he can fill out more of it than I did.
I, Stan Wise, will my football practice jersey to anyone with a tentpole to match.

We, the Senior Class of 1964, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Mack Short, do hereby sign my name on this fifteenth day of May, 1964.

The Senior Class

by President

This certifies that the above named Mack Short did on the day and year aforesaid appear before us, and being of sound mind at the said time did declare the same to be the Last Will and Testament of the 1964 Senior Class. And we in his presence and in the presence of each other did witness the signing of his name.

WHAT'S BEHIND THE SIGN?

Our geologists, located in many parts of the globe, will tell you that the exciting, unending quest for new oil reserves is behind the Marathon sign. Our production and marketing men will tell you that the most modern refining and research facilities are behind it.

Our customers may have the best answer: the finest products you can buy are behind every Marathon sign in every Marathon Service Station you meet.

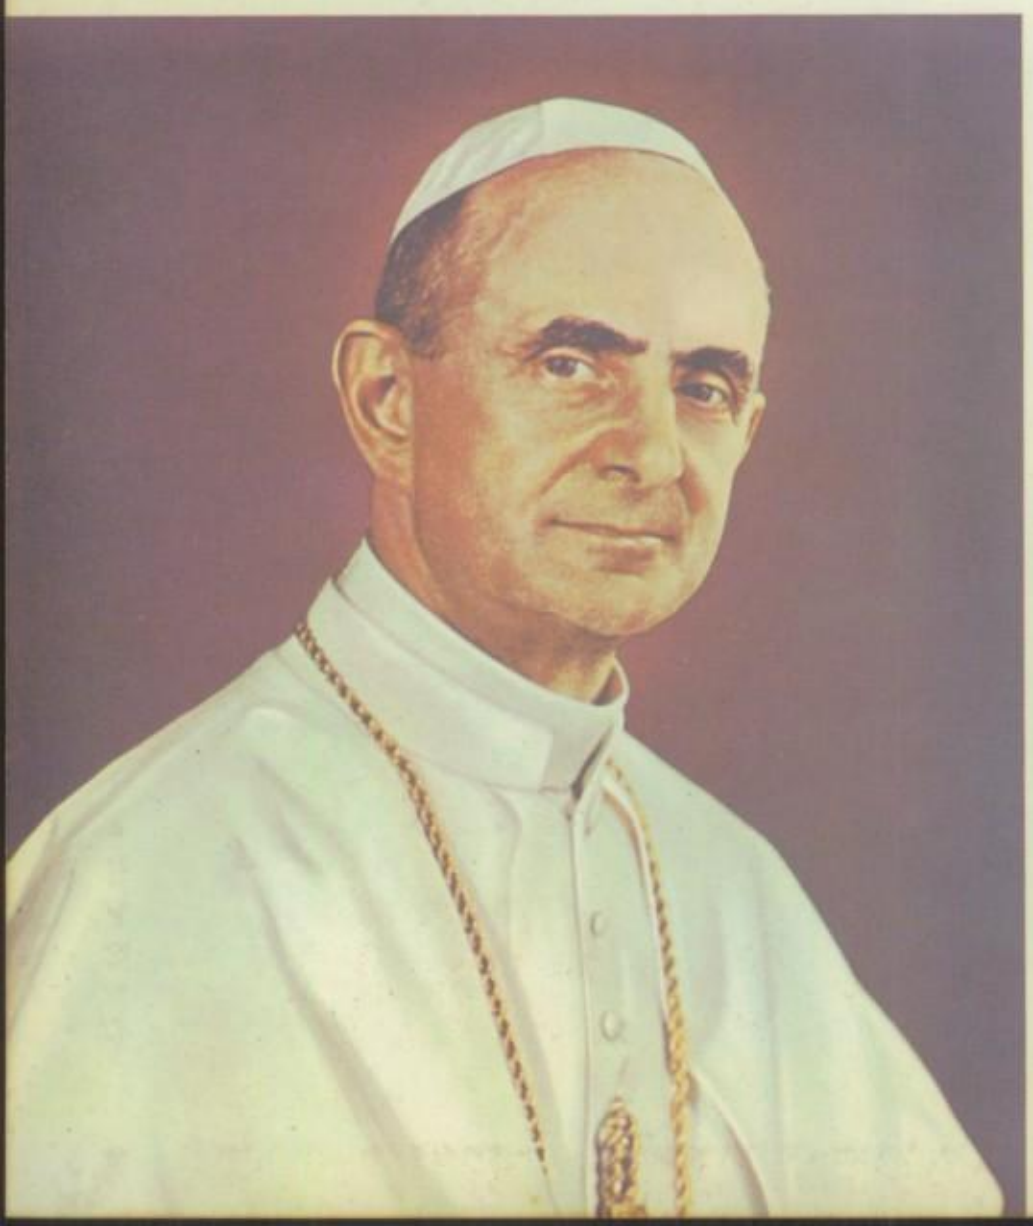
Above: A short step toward disarmament was taken with cautious optimism with the signing of the limited nuclear test ban treaty in Moscow. Seated: Sec. of State Dean Rusk, Andrei Gromyko, Lord Home. Premier Khrushchev stands behind Lord Home next to U.N. Secretary General U Thant, Adlai Stevenson and U. S. Congressional leaders. Right photo: Red Chinese-Russian relations worsened during the year as they battled for leadership of world communism. This Moscow meeting between Mikhail Suslov, left, and Teng Hsaio-Peng in August failed to produce accord.

An unidentified priest went to the aid of a wounded soldier during a revolt in Venezuela. For this picture Hector Rondon won the 1963 Pulitzer Prize for news photography.

World Events in Review—1963



Pope Paul VI began his reign after the death of Pope John XXIII. Pope Paul reconvened the Ecumenical Council and at year's end planned an unprecedented journey to the Holy Land.

Left, below: Dr. Helge Ingstad, veteran Norwegian explorer found remains of a 9-house Viking settlement in Newfoundland dating 500 years before Columbus. Right: A huge landslide into Vaiont Reservoir in northern Italy sent a wall of water into the valley below destroying Longarone and killing some 3,000 people.

A new island, 1/4 mile long and 130 feet high, was born off southern Iceland from an underwater volcano.

Britain's new prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, took office in November, after scandals shook Harold Macmillan's government.

East-West tension continued: left; Gen. Chong of North Korea levels a pistol at U.N. spokesmen during discussions of armistice-violating raids at Panmunjom. Right; Russian attempts to control Allied access to Berlin failed in the face of western unity. This American convoy had been delayed 42 hours en route to the city.
